

Celebrating diversity and individuality

Founded in 2015, Manor Multi Academy Trust originated from the highly successful school improvement and partnership work led by Manor Primary School in Wolverhampton, a National Teaching School with a proven track record of achieving the highest of standards and a reputation for supporting the development of many schools locally improve.

A spokesman said: "We are privileged to have four other schools in our trust: Hill Avenue Academy and East Park Academy; St Alban's C of E Primary Academy and St Thomas' C of E Primary Academy.

"It is our intention that every child who attends a school within our MAT attends a "Great School", that all pupils are nurtured, inspired and receive the very best education possible.

"Our goal is to ensure that every member of staff receives the highest quality professional development and tailored support so they can be the best they can be.

"Our academies are each at the centre of their own local communities. It is very important that each school has the opportunity and the freedom to respond to the needs of parents and children and create their own local solutions.

As a family of academies we celebrate diversity and individuality.

"We understand that no school or community is the same; however, we have the same high expectations of everyone in the trust and believe that, with the support of the Manor family, every academy will provide a great learning experience for the children and they will make great progress.

"Manor Primary is an established designated National Teaching School and is well placed to provide an environment where leaders nurture, support, coach and empower all staff to be outstanding. We have developed highly skilled and reflective teachers, teaching assistants and other support staff who are dedicated and committed to ensuring pupils receive the highest quality and standards of educational experience.

"We never adopt a "one-size-fits-all" approach to teaching. Every child is valued as an individual and nurtured to achieve their true potential through inspirational teaching and outstanding pastoral care in a safe, calm environment. Crucially, success is measured in terms of personal improvement, development and achieving their own tailored goals, not solely against the results of their peers. We are continually moving forward by researching, developing and adopting the latest teaching techniques to further improve

"Within the trust there is significant expertise and a strong track record in supporting and working with schools in a variety of contexts. This support has included a range of strategies and models for school improvement. We are passionate about system-led change – our trust is built upon the principle of schools supporting schools. We are very open in our approach and readily share our resources and thinking, both within the family and with our neighbouring schools.

"Our trust is committed to leading by example and lives by its unwavering commitment to integrity, transparency and excellence.

"Our aim is that our children will receive the very best education providing exceptional opportunities for learning for our family of primary academies .

"Our passion is for primary education and we believe that children can achieve the highest academic standards at the same time as enjoying a rich, rewarding and challenging curriculum which focuses on themselves as individuals, developing their character and helping them realise the opportunities open to them in the wider world."
